Built in 2004 by the renowned Benetti shipyard, the magnificent 50m(163.8') Jo is superior in her class. Crowned 'Best Family Charter Yacht 2011' by Superyacht World, she offers stunning accommodation, an array of water toys and an outstanding crew for a truly unforgettable charter experience. With exterior design by the acclaimed Stefano Nautucci, Jo's distinctive blue hull cuts a striking vision on the water. She has been constructed to the uncompromisingly high standards for which the Italian shipyard is famed and having been fully refitted in 2013 is now presented in immaculate condition.

Her luxurious yet elegant and understated interior is the work of François Zuretti and sleeps up to 12 guests in five impressive staterooms, including an owner's suite, a VIP stateroom, two doubles and two twins. Throughout her interior a feeling of light and space is utilised with a fresh colour palette of neutral tones combined with cherry woods and natural oak to create warmth. Curved lines and soft lighting showcase a timeless feel whilst a varied selection of sumptuous fabrics provides the ultimate comfort.

Whether watching a movie in front of the plasma, listening to the juke box at the bar, relaxing with guests in one of the luxurious seating areas or entertaining in the formal dining room, Jo's fabulous living areas offer a relaxing and luxurious setting.

Set over three decks, her fantastic deck areas play host to a wide range of amenities to keep the whole family entertained, including spacious outdoor seating areas perfect for spending quality time together. Her vast sun deck features ample room for sunbathing and her large Jacuzzi provides the ideal spot for enjoying the beautiful surroundings in style. Also on board is a wide range of water toys for hours of water-based fun for everyone, including clear bottom kayaks, inflatables and children's learner skis. With two highly experienced Captains and fantastic crew to provide five star service, she is justifiably one of the best family yachts available for charter.
