

REFLECTIONS

Each year, we offer the opportunity to cruise the profoundly beautiful waters of Southeast Alaska with our highly experienced, professional, unmatched in Alaska crew. REFLECTIONS is an elegant, safe, comfortable 98' Broward Motoryacht, entirely designed for the complete Alaska experience.

REFLECTIONS has been refit with a modern, neutral interior. The Main Salon is new for 2013. The Guest Staterooms were recently refit by Delta Marine of Seattle.

Your REFLECTIONS charter also includes our extraordinary 30' Osprey tender, an unparalleled match for fishing and exploring this amazing place. We journey the waters between Sitka and Juneau, which are rich with wildlife and fish.

CREW

CLINT CROPPER - Lead Captain

Captain Cropper has over 25 years of experience in yachting, much of it on the waters of his native and beloved Alaska. Clint was raised in Juneau and has spent nearly all of his life exploring the waters of the Inside Passage. Clint has operated yachts for clients throughout the world and has owned his own renowned Alaska charter yacht, True Blue. Clint has a perfect safety record, is an avid and expert fisherman, a naturalist, and is renowned for his second sense ability to find and operate vessels around wildlife. Clint is 42, and in his spare time, enjoys travel, hiking and combing beaches for treasures.

SCOTTIE CARDEN - Chief Mate/second Captain

Scott is a licensed captain, and acts as Chief Mate/second Captain aboard Reflections and her 30' tender Blackwood II. Scott has captained several of Alaska's premier charter yachts and small cruise ships including the National Geographic boats. Scott brings a wealth of Alaska knowledge, and a commitment to safety and high standards.

SCOTT MAY - Chief Steward and Deckhand

Scott has worked as steward, chef and/or mate aboard many of America's finest yachts, co-owned True Blue with Clint, loves to fish, and has expert knowledge on the flora and fauna of Alaska. Scott is a naturalist, a trained chef, and his eye for detail and service are exceptional. Like every crew member aboard Reflections, he is trained in First Aid, Firefighting and survival at sea.

MEGAN CARDEN - Second Stew and Deckhand

Megan carries a captain's license, and has served as captain aboard several well known Alaska charter yachts including American Safari Cruises. Megan is versed in all things Alaska and is well trained in yacht etiquette. She recently completed a transit as captain aboard a yacht traveling from Seattle, WA to Fort Lauderdale, FL.

DIANA DAVIS - Chef

Diana was born to the yacht chef industry. Her mother an accomplished chef and her father an experienced sailor and yachtsman. Diana learned her craft from her mother and honed her skills at the esteemed Ecole Ritz Escoffier in Paris. She has prepared her extraordinary dishes in restaurants and for exclusive clients on yachts and in private homes throughout the country. Diana prides herself on her preparation of seafoods, utilizing local, organic and nourishing foods. She particularly enjoys the Latin flavors and American takes on classic French foods. She speaks English, Spanish and is active in many areas of the California food scene.
