THE ULTIMATE IN LONG DISTANCE CRUISING FOR LARGER OR SMALLER GROUPS

A timeless design from 1966 – fully rebuilt in 2004 – Sherakhan offers 13 bespoke cabins accommodating up to 26 guests. With a cruising range of 3,500 nautical miles, she is a go-anywhere explorer, ready to take on the world.

DECOR, STYLE - BEYOND YOUR IMAGINATION

A luxury dining room for 22 guests hosts a colossal 7m Atrium bathed in natural light filtered down through the glass bottomed 18-person Jacuzzi.

Despite being a charter vessel, Sherakhan faithfully maintains the owner's sense of style and décor – not least including his own personal art collection.

REST, RELAXATION, REJUVINATION

Sherakhan offers 13 bespoke cabins accommodating up to 26 guests. Each one is individually styled to offer perfect, luxurious comfort in the most sumptuous of settings.

After a day of outdoor excitement, guests may retire to the ship's library, or slip below for a massage or facial in the wellness area.

One deck below is Spa de la Sirene, with a vast sauna, steam bath and a range of ultra-modern exercise machines.

AN EXPERIENCED AND FUN-LOVING CREW

Families can embark on tender trips to deserted islands, kayak tours to nesting colonies, or outdoor lectures in amongst breathtaking surroundings.

Alternatively raft races, floating trampoline games or a relax in the 18-person Jacuzzi might prove enticing.

Flexibility and customization are paramount. The crew will design an itinerary according to guests tastes – Sherakhan’s low fuel consumption facilitating any desire to venture further afield.

A large, dark-hulled cruise ship with a white upper section is sailing on a clear blue sea. The ship has multiple decks with railings and a prominent white funnel. In the foreground, two jet skis are moving across the water, leaving white wakes. The jet ski in the immediate foreground has a rider wearing a life vest and sunglasses. The background shows a distant coastline under a clear sky.
